Top news headlines:

Financial Tribune- Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif rejected charges about activities at the Parchin military site, 30 km south of Tehran, stressing that such “lies” are spread with the aim of undermining “the atmosphere of understanding” created after Iran and world powers reached a nuclear deal last month.

Financial Tribune- Japan's top trade and industry official and the accompanying delegation comprising executives from several industries, arrived in Tehran on Saturday to discuss ways to expand ties as a recently-reached nuclear deal paves the way for business as usual with Iran.

Isna- Managing Director of Iran's largest state-run carmaker (IKCO) Hashem Yekkeh-Zareh said that the corporation plans to establish an exports company to work on engineering, design and providing auto parts. “Running the company will pave the way for Iranian car part makers to cooperate with the world's well-known companies.
